

ENRIGHT AVERTS OWN ARREST BY OUSTING GUARD

Obeys Court in Cafe Case—232 Cops Assigned to Duty
in Raided Premises in Day.

Police Commissioner Enright, threatened with a warrant for his arrest by Magistrate McGuire yesterday unless the policeman on duty in the cafe of Michael T. Browne, No. 794 Columbus Avenue, was withdrawn before 9 o'clock this morning, ordered such action before he left his office for the day. The Commissioner notified Inspector Donahue of the 3d Inspection District to have the man on duty in Browne's withdrawn and Donahue issued an order to that effect. The policeman was out of Browne's before 6 o'clock.

Magistrate McGuire made his announcement yesterday during the arraignment of Capt. Donahue and Patrolman Francis Murphy on a summons alleging oppression in connection with the police guard at Browne's Cafe. After the Magistrate had announced his intentions he added, addressing Capt. Donahue: "I want you to tell that to the Commissioner."

The Police Department bulletin issued yesterday contained two extra pages. It is interesting in view of the number of hold-ups and robberies recently reported, as it showed exactly 232 patrolmen were assigned yesterday to "duty in raided premises."

INA CLAIRE'S PLAY STOPPED BY POLICE

"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" Halted
Under Law Against "Immoral Exhibitions."

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 1.—Performance of "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," in which Ina Claire is starring, were stopped here last night by the Chief of Police. The play opened Monday night. Chief Philip Smith said in his official notice to the manager of the Shubert Theatre, where Miss Claire was playing:

"This action is taken by me as I believe this play to be in violation of the statutes relative to immoral and indecent exhibitions."

William Harris Jr., producer of the play, indicated he would try to get an injunction so as to complete the week's engagement here before going to Hartford and then to New York.

FOR MISS 14 TO 20

Lovely Frocks for Autumn wear, $39.50

One very charming frock of Canton crepe features the bateau neck and wide Jenny sleeves.

Silk taggoting in self color has been artificially used in trimming the waist, which has been fashioned with the lowered waistline now so popular,
and in forming straps through which the narrow sash girdle is run. Cascades of crepe fall gracefully at the sides of the skirt. Navy blue or black.

The model

—illustrated is of the crepe de chine and beautifully carries out the straight-line silhouette favored by Fashion. Self colored gros-grain ribbon fastened at the waist with clever motifs and falling prettily to the hem
simply but effectively trim this frock.
Navy blue, brown or black.

Second Floor, Old Building, Tenth Street.

A Brogue Oxford for school girls, $10

Very smart indeed. It was especially made to our order for the fastidious boarding school or college girl—who prefers the heavy English type of walking shoe to any other to wear with her woollen stockings. Grain calfskin. Very fashionable and of an excellent heavy quality
that will stand severe usage.
Fine workmanship.

Wing-tip model

Smart perforation—the swagger, well rounded toe. Sturdy self sole—low walking heels.
Tan or black.

Slip-over Aprons at $3.50

These practical garments have been made of imported Japanese crepe in rose, pink, light blue,
Copenhagen blue and lavender.
Fashioned with roll collar,
kimono sleeves, and large, convenient patch pockets. A belt of self material fastens and finishes the apron.

Made in every other size—30, 40, 42 and 44—as they are very easily adjusted.
